As used herein, the term "Environmental Contaminants" shall mean any naturally occurring radioactive material or any pollutant, waste, contaminant, or hazardous or toxic material substance or waste.
- (7) All ad valorem taxes, real property taxes and similar taxes for the calendar year that includes the Effective Time with respect to the Properties shall be prorated between Assignor and Assignee based on the Effective Time. Assignor shall be responsible for and promptly pay all such taxes attributable to the period of time prior to the Effective Time and Assignee shall be responsible for and promptly pay all such taxes attributable to the period of time from and after the Effective Time.
- (8) All proceeds from the sale of production actually sold and delivered by Assignor prior to the Effective Time hereof and attributable to the Properties shall belong to Assignor and all proceeds from the sale of production actually sold and delivered after the Effective Time attributable to the Properties shall belong to Assignee. In addition, Assignee shall pay Assignor for the value of all merchantable allowable oil or other liquids in storage owned by Assignor above the pipeline connection at the Effective Time, and not previously sold by Assignor, that is credited to the Properties; such value to be the contract price or sales price, or if no contract is in effect that pertains to such stored hydrocarbons or such stored hydrocarbons are not sold, the highest posted price for such stored hydrocarbons liquids in the field in which such stored hydrocarbons were produced as of the month prior to the Closing, less taxes or gravity adjustments that would be deducted by the purchaser of such stored hydrocarbons.

("Sale Agreement"), Assignee shall have sixty (60) days following the sale date to examine title ("Due Diligence Review Period"). During the Due Diligence Review Period, the Assignee may request certain purchase price adjustments by individual Property for asserted title defects based on the Assignee's allocated purchase price for such Property. However, Assignee may not request an adjustment to the allocated purchase price paid for an individual Property for a title defect, unless and until the amount of the aggregate of all such proposed purchase price adjustments exceeds a threshold of two percent (2%) of the aggregate purchase price paid for the entire lot containing such properties, at which point the Assignee may request an adjustment for the aggregate amount that exceeds the threshold. Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this paragraph (10), no adjustment subject to this paragraph (10) shall be asserted unless the adjustment for an individual claim exceeds a threshold of $1,000. All asserted title defects, above the aggregate threshold shall be resolved in accordance with the terms of Paragraph 10 of the Sale Agreement. Notwithstanding all of the preceding provisions of this paragraph (10), any individual title defects not exceeding the threshold or not asserted within the Due Diligence Review Period shall be considered waived and the Assignee shall have no further rights to assert a title defect or request a purchase price adjustment.
