1. Assets Purchased. Seller shall, on the Closing Date provided for in Paragraph 4 hereof, transfer and assign such Properties, pursuant to an Assignment and Bill of Sale (the "Assignment") in the form set forth on the attached Exhibit The Assignment shall be made without warranty of title, either express or implied, except as to conveyances or encumbrances by through or under Seller.

Such consideration shall be payable by wire transfer on the Closing Date.

4. CLOSING. Closing shall occur, subject to each condition precedent having been fulfilled or waived by the party in favor of whom it was stipulated, on or before December 13, 2024, or at such other date as may be agreed by Purchaser and Seller (the "Closing Date"), at a mutually agreeable time and place to be designated by Seller. At Closing, Seller agrees to execute and deliver a notarized Assignment and Bill of Sale and in lieu of transfer order letters between Seller and Purchaser addressed to the companies purchasing the oil, gas and other hydrocarbons produced from the Properties, to give the necessary notice of this purchase and sale. "Closing" shall mean the consummation of the sale by transfer of Seller's ownership in the Properties and payment of the Purchase Price by wire transfer, as adjusted pursuant to Paragraph 8, to Seller's bank.

pertaining to the plugging and abandonment of any and all wells on the Properties.

(d) Purchaser is sophisticated in the evaluation, purchase, ownership, development, and investment in oil and gas properties. In making its decision to enter into this Agreement and to consummate the transactions contemplated herein, Purchaser has relied on its own independent investigation, review, and analysis of the Properties, which investigation, review, and analysis was done by Purchaser and its own legal, tax, economic, environmental, geological, geophysical, engineering, and other advisors. In entering into this Agreement, Purchaser acknowledges that it has relied solely upon such investigation, review, and analysis and not on any factual representations or opinions of Seller or any representatives, consultants, or advisors engaged by or otherwise purporting to represent Seller except to the extent represented or set forth in this Agreement.

6. ASSUMPTION OF LIABILITIES AND INDEMNITIES.

As used in this Paragraph 6, and the subparagraph hereunder, "Claims" shall include claims, demands, causes or action, liabilities, damages, penalties, judgments, payments, losses, damages, penalties, fines, costs, expenses, including any fees of attorneys, experts, consultants, accountants, and other professional representatives and legal or other expenses incurred in connection therewith, including liabilities, costs, losses, and damages for personal injury, or death, property damage or loss, contract claims, tort or otherwise.

liabilities or obligations arose before, on, or after the Effective Time, (B) all , Claims, liabilities or obligations for (1) properly plugging and abandoning the wells, and (2) restoring the surface of the premises affected by the wells, all at Purchaser's sole cost, risk, and expense, even though such Claims, liabilities and obligations to plug and abandon and restore the premises may have arisen prior to the Effective Time, and (C) all Claims, liabilities and obligations associated with the payment of proceeds that are held by Seller in suspense. All Claims, liabilities and obligations assumed by Purchaser as set forth in this Section are collectively, the "Assumed Liabilities."

- (b) From and after Closing, Seller shall indemnify and hold harmless Purchaser from any and all claims, costs, expenses, liabilities or causes of action to or by third parties arising directly or indirectly from, or incident to, Seller's ownership of the Properties prior to the Effective Time (hereinafter the "Retained Liabilities").
- (c) Each indemnified party hereunder agrees that upon its discovery of facts giving rise to a claim for indemnity under the provisions of this Agreement, including receipt by it of notice of any demand, assertion, claim, action or proceeding, judicial or otherwise, by any third party (such third party actions being collectively referred to herein as the "Claim"), with respect to any matter as to which it is entitled to indemnity under the provisions of the Agreement, it will give prompt notice thereof in writing to the indemnifying party together with a statement of such information respecting any of the foregoing as it shall then have. Such notice shall include a formal demand for indemnification under this Agreement. The indemnified party shall afford the indemnifying party a reasonable opportunity to pay, settle or contest the Claim as its expense.
- (d) Upon Closing, Seller shall (i) be responsible for any and all claims arising out of the production or sale of hydrocarbons from the Properties-or the proper accounting or payment to parties for their interests therein-insofar as such claims relate to periods of time prior to the Effective Time, and (ii) defend, indemnify and hold Purchaser harmless from any and all such claims. Upon Closing, Purchaser shall be responsible for all of said types of claims insofar as they relate to the periods of time from and after the Effective Time and shall defend, indemnify and hold Seller harmless therefrom.

7. ACCESS AND DUE DILIGENCE. In connection with the proposed acquisition, Seller shall permit Purchaser and its employees and representatives, without undue interference to the ordinary conduct of Seller's business, to have free and reasonable access during normal business hours to (a) the Properties under the following conditions: (i) at Purchaser's sole cost and risk, (ii) Purchaser must be accompanied by Seller or Seller's representative at all times during any field inspections; and to (b) all books, accounts, records, contracts, and personnel requested by Purchaser, so that Purchaser may conduct a Due Diligence investigation of the assets and Properties. Any conclusions made from such investigations will result from Buyer's own independent review and judgment

8. PURCHASE PRICE ADJUSTMENT. To the extent Purchaser discovers, pursuant to its due diligence review, prior to the Closing Date, material facts not previously known to Purchaser, including, but not limited to: (a) working and unit net revenue interest figures different from those set forth on Exhibit B; (b) material title defects; (c) working interest which is limited to the wellbore of the currently producing wells such that Seller does not have the rights to drill additional wells in the leasehold; (d) environmental problems, liens, mortgages, other encumbrances or unpaid taxes that have not been discharged at or prior to the Closing Date; (e) problems with the condition of the wellbore, equipment and/or facilities (the right of inspection and approval of the condition of the equipment being expressly reserved by Purchaser) related to or associated with the Properties; or (f) information related to litigation or potential unasserted claims, or to the extent required, necessary approvals for the assignment of contract(s) or required waivers of preferential right(s) to purchase all or part of the assets associated with the Properties; then, Purchaser shall propose an adjustment in the Purchase Price attributable to the defect. Seller and Purchaser shall use their best efforts to come to an agreement with respect to either remedy the defect or adjust the Purchase Price. If the Parties cannot reach agreement on a remedy for the defect or an adjustment in the Purchase Price, then upon written notice to the other party, either party may terminate this Agreement, and the same shall be of no further force and effect.

All proceeds (including proceeds held in suspense or escrow) from the sale of production actually sold and delivered by Seller prior to the Effective time and attributable to the Properties shall belong to Seller and all proceeds from the sale of production actually sold and delivered after the Effective Time attributable to the Properties shall belong to Purchaser. In addition, all oil, condensate or liquid hydrocarbons (hereinafter in this paragraph call "oil") in storage shall be allocated based on the pumper's gauge sheets and all gas meter charts shall be allocated as of the Effective Time. Purchaser shall pay Seller for such oil at the highest posted field price currently prevailing for oil of like grade and gravity for the particular field.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement, all costs, expenses and obligations relating to the Properties which accrue prior to the Effective Time shall be paid and discharged by Seller; and all costs, expenses and obligations relating to the Properties which accrue after the Effective Time shall be paid and discharged by Purchaser.

Seller shall prepare a Preliminary Settlement Statement and provide it to Purchaser no later than 4 days prior to the Closing Date. Any adjustments shall be made at Closing, if possible. If adjustment amounts are indeterminable at Closing, adjustments shall be made within sixty (60) days of Closing.

Seller shall, within said sixty (60) day period, prepare a Post Closing Settlement Statement to Purchaser for its approval, listing the total amount of proceeds of production received by Seller subsequent to the Effective Time, and offset by all operating expenses paid by Seller subsequent to the Effective Time that were not included in the Preliminary Settlement Statement. In the event the post-Closing settlement statement reflects an amount due and owing to Purchaser, Seller shall pay such amount simultaneous with its delivery of the aforesaid post-Closing settlement statement to Purchaser. In the event an amount is shown to be due and owing Seller, Purchaser shall pay the same within five (5) days of its approval of such post-Closing settlement statement.

9. TAXES. Purchaser shall be responsible for all sales or use taxes, if any, which may become due and owing in the event of a sale of the Properties to Purchaser. Ad valorem, property and similar taxes and assessments with respect to the Properties for the assessment year in which Closing occurs shall be prorated to the Effective Date, so that Seller shall be responsible for such taxes for the period prior to the Effective Date and Purchaser shall be responsible for such taxes for the period on and after the Effective Date.

10. SUBSEQUENT DRILLING OPERATIONS. After full execution of this Agreement and prior to delivery of possession of the Properties to Purchaser under the applicable provisions of this Agreement, Seller shall not, without Purchaser's prior written consent, propose or conduct any operations for the drilling, testing, completing, reworking, re-completing, sidetracking, deepening, plugging back or plugging and abandoning a well with respect to the Properties (a "Drilling Operation") under the terms of any operating agreement or other contract (except repairs or operations made necessary by emergency conditions, after which Seller shall promptly give Purchaser notice with full details of the work done and the cost thereof). If any party (other than Seller) to an operating agreement or compulsory pooling order, proposes a Drilling Operation prior to such delivery of possession of the Properties, Seller shall promptly notify Purchaser of such proposal and will promptly provide Purchaser with all information, data or other material in Seller's possession that may be relevant to a decision whether or not to participate in such Drilling Operation. Seller shall accept or reject participation in the proposed Drilling Operation based upon Purchaser's election with respect thereto given in writing by Purchaser to Seller within the period allowed in such proposal. Failure by Purchaser to make an election within such period shall be deemed an election by Purchaser not to participate. No election by Purchaser to participate or not to participate in such a Drilling Operation shall result in any adjustment in the sale price allocated to the property affected thereby; however, all costs and expenses on account of Purchaser's decision to participate in any Drilling Operation shall be borne by Purchaser, notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary.

11. FURTHER OPERATION OF SELLER-OPERATED PROPERTIES. Subject to the provisions of Section 10 hereof, Seller shall, as to the Properties it now operates, continue to operate the same until the Effective Time, when such operation shall be turned over to, and become the responsibility of Purchaser. In the event Closing occurs after the Effective Time, however, Seller shall, unless Purchaser and Seller otherwise agree, continue the physical operation of such Properties until Closing: such operation from and after the Effective Time shall be conducted by Seller for and on behalf of Purchaser; and for any such services performed by Seller from and after the Effective Time, Purchaser shall pay Seller for all reasonable and necessary expenses incurred by Seller in such operation, protection or maintenance of the Properties. Such expenses may be recovered by Seller as part of the closing or post-closing adjustments, as appropriate. In all of its operations, after full execution of the Agreement, Seller shall exercise the same standard of care as an ordinary prudent operator under the same or similar circumstance and shall notify Purchase of any material adverse change in the productive capability of any well included in the Properties.

12. LIABILITIES AND EXPENSES. Purchaser and Seller shall respectively pay and discharge all liabilities, obligations and expenses respectively incurred by them or on their behalf in connection with the preparations, authorization, execution and performance of this Purchase and Sale Agreement. Purchaser and Seller will indemnify the other from any cost, expense or liability from breach of this paragraph.

13. FURTHER ASSURANCES. Seller and Purchaser shall execute, acknowledge, and deliver or cause to be executed, acknowledged, and delivered such instruments and take such other actions as may be necessary or advisable to carry out their obligations under this Agreement and under any document, certificate or other instrument delivered pursuant hereto.

Any suit or proceeding hereunder must be brought exclusively in the state or federal courts of the State of Texas, and each Party hereby consents to the personal jurisdiction of said state and federal courts. Each Party further agrees that any such suit or proceeding shall be filed exclusively in the state or federal courts in Tyler, Smith County, Texas, and the Parties expressly waive any objection to such courts as an inconvenient forum. Additionally, each party hereto hereby knowingly, voluntarily, irrevocably, and intentionally waives any right it may have to a trial by jury in respect to any proceeding based hereon or arising out of, under, or in connection with this Agreement. This provision is a material inducement for the parties to enter into this Agreement.. This Purchase and Sale Agreement was prepared by both parties hereto and not by one party to the exclusion of the other party.

15. Confidentiality. This Agreement is confidential in nature and, until Closing occurs, the Parties agree not to disclose, discuss, or make available to any third party the terms of this Agreement or the fact that the Parties are negotiating a sale and purchase of the Assets. Provided, to the extent reasonably necessary to satisfy the covenants or to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, each Party shall be permitted to disclose the existence of and terms of this Agreement to its legal and financial counsel and to any governmental authority the consent or approval of which is reasonably necessary to accomplish the purpose of this Agreement.

In the event any provision of this Agreement is construed to conflict with any provision of the documents delivered pursuant hereto, the provisions of this Agreement shall be deemed controlling to the extent of such conflict. The Parties do not intend to cause a merger of the terms of this Agreement into the Assignment, and this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect on and after the Closing Date in accordance with its terms.

17. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon, and shall inure to the benefit of, the Parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

18. Limitation on Damages. Except for claims in connection with damages incurred by a third party for which indemnification is sought under the terms of this Agreement, neither Party will be entitled to recover from the other Party any consequential, special, indirect, punitive, or exemplary damages in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, and each Party expressly waives any right to such consequential, special, indirect, punitive, and exemplary damages in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby.

Assignee shall pay and defend and hold Assignor harmless with respect to the payment of all ad valorem taxes on the Interests for the 2024 Tax Period and thereafter, together with any interest or penalty assessed thereon. Regardless of the foregoing, Assignor agrees to reimburse Assignee, upon evidence from Assignee that such taxes have been paid, Assignor's proportionate share of taxes in respect of its ownership of the Interests during the Tax Period.

Assignee shall further defend and hold Assignor harmless with respect to the payment of sales taxes or other taxes in connection with this Assignment, if any, including interest or penalty assessed thereon.

All taxes (other than ad valorem and income taxes) which are imposed on or with respect to the production of oil, natural gas or other hydrocarbons or minerals or the receipt of proceeds therefrom (including but not limited to severance, production and excise taxes) shall be apportioned between the parties as follows: (i) Payment or withholding of all such taxes applicable or relating to production sold prior to the Effective Time and filing of all statements, returns and documents pertinent thereto shall be the responsibility of Assignor; and (ii) Payment or withholding of all such taxes applicable or relating to production sold from and after the Effective Time and the filing of all statements, returns, and documents incident thereto shall be the responsibility of Assignee.

Each of the parties hereto shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the other such further instruments, conveyances, deeds, acquittances, division orders and transfer orders, and take such other actions as may be reasonably necessary to carry out the provisions of this Conveyance. However, Assignee shall assume all responsibility for notifying the purchaser of oil and gas production from the Interests, and such other designated persons who may be responsible for disbursing payments for the purchase of such production, of the change of ownership of the Interests. Assignee shall take all actions necessary to effectuate the transfer of such payments to Assignee as of the Effective Time. Assignor shall have no responsibility or liability for the proper distribution of proceeds from and after the Effective Time.

The terms and conditions contained herein shall constitute covenants running with the land and shall be binding upon the parties hereto, their legal representatives, successors, assigns and heirs.

Assignee joins in the execution hereof for the purpose of being bound by all of the terms, provisions, obligations and covenants herein specified.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD unto Assignee, its legal representatives, successors, assigns and heirs, in accordance with the terms and provisions hereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned have executed this instrument on the date of the acknowledgments annexed hereto, but effective for all purposes as of the Effective Time.
