Bill Hay Drilling Company

Greetings:

This will advise that on September 20, 1954, Paul Edward Hay also known as Paul E. Hay and also known as Bill E. Hay, was accidentally killed.

Betha P. Hay, 371 W. 3rd Street, Hoisington, Kansas, has received her appointment as Administratrix of the Estate of Paul E. Hay also known as Paul Edward Hay and also known as Bill E. Hay in an action filed in the Probate Court of Barton County, Kansas.

She has also received the authority of the court to carry on the business owned and operated by the decedent.

The attorneys in the action are Holland, Thompson and Holland of Russell, Kansas, the accounting firm handling the estate matters as well as current business is Dick B. Evans & Co., Box 194, Great Bend, Kansas

This will advise you that, if you had any outstanding accounts due from any of the above listed businesses or individuals up to and including all services rendered or goods purchased thru September 20, 1954, you should prepare a proper, sworn claim in duplicate covering such accounts one copy of which is to be filed in the Probate Court of Barton County, Kansas, and the other for the use of Holland, Thompson and Holland, Attorneys in the action.

If you wish to file these claims with this office, we will forward same to the proper parties.

These claims will be considered for payment within the statutory time provided by law, nine months.

You are further advised that the businesses of the decedent will be continued by the Administratrix and that L. M. Smith is the authorized agent of the estate in the conduct of such business. All items of expense incurred in the operation of the business on or after September 21, 1954, will be paid in the regular course of business without it being necessary to file a formal claim for same.

It is important that your claim as filed with the estate include amounts due you ONLY thru September 20, 1954.

If you are the holder of an interest bearing obligation of the decedent, the interest accrued only thru September 20, 1954, should be stated on your claim as a separate item. Any interest accruing after that date being an expense of the Estate.

We will attempt to serve you and the administratrix to the best of our ability and will welcome any inquiries you may care to make.

Respectfully submitted
