ASSIGNMENT OF OIL & GAS LEASES

For valuable consideration,

Miller Bros. Oil Company, Inc., (the "Sellers"), convey by assignment to Trimble & Maclaskey Oil, LLC, ("T-Mac") (collectively the "Parties"), all their rights and interests in the following oil and gas leases:

1. Lingenfelter Lease – an Oil & Gas Lease, dated April 22, 1980, between E.C. Lingenfelter and Dorthy Lingenfelter, lessors, and Miller Bros. Oil Company, Inc., lessees, covering:

Southeast ¼ of Section 20, Township 23S, Range 13E, in Greenwood County, Kansas, recorded in Lease Book 36, Page 79 in the Greenwood County Register of Deeds

Release of Adverse Claims and Interests

Seller also releases any claims or interests he/she/it/they hold against the Leases or production from the Leases, including but not limited to, mortgages, notes, financing statements, non-participating shares of production, royalty interests, and unpaid royalties, whether filed of record or not.

Effect of Conveyance

The effect of this conveyance is to grant T-Mac the entire 100% working interest in the Leases free of any outstanding working, royalty, or other non-participating interests or encumbrances.

Conveyance of Leasehold Personal Property

Additionally, the Sellers convey to T-Mac all of their interests in the personal property located on the land covered by the Leases. The personal property includes, but is not limited to, all wellbores, pipe, tubing, casing, rods, pump jacks, wellheads, electrical motors, downhole pumps, tanks, and any produced oil remaining in the tanks. The Sellers also convey to T-Mac all files, reports, records, studies, electronic logs, core analysis, and copies of division orders relating to the Leases.

The consideration for the conveyance of equipment and all related personal property is included in the tendered consideration.

Seller's Representations and Warranty

The Sellers represent:

- a. That no Seller is aware of any additional interests not subject to this agreement, whether contained in the public record or not, which would burden T-Mac's operations or its net revenue interest.
- b. They have operated each Lease as a reasonably prudent operator and have done nothing to impair the validity of the Leases.
- c. There has never been a written demand for release or any other formal attack upon the validity of any of the Leases to the Sellers' knowledge.
- d. All landowner royalties have been paid. All Federal, state, and local taxes have been paid. Sellers know of no outstanding debts which could give rise to a mechanic's or artisan lien against the Leases. There are no pending Kansas Corporation Commission fines or orders against the Sellers or the Leases which would affect T-Mac's ability to operate and produce the Leases.
- e. All correspondence and information given to T-Mac during the negotiations of this transaction have been accurate and truthful.
- f. That no Seller has entered into any agreement with any 3rd party that adversely affects this assignment or T-Mac's ability to operate the Leases or sell any produced products.
- g. Each Seller executing this agreement, either individually or on behalf of an entity, has authority to convey the rights and interests of this agreement.

The Sellers warrant that all of the above representations are true.

Complete Agreement

This agreement and the Parties Oil and Gas Lease Purchase Contract, dated November 3, 2016, together represents the complete agreement of the Parties.
